VERDI PLUME COMPANY.

Location of principal place of business, Verdi, Washoe county, Nevada. Location of works, Verdi, Washoe county, Nevada. Notice is hereby given, that at a meeting of the Board of Directors, held on the 23d day of December, 1876, an assessment (No. 5) of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2 50) per share was levied upon the capital stock of the corporation, payable immediately, in United States gold coin, to the Secretary, at the Company's office, Merrill's Hotel, Verdi, Nevada.

Any stock upon which this assessment shall remain unpaid on the 23d day of January, 1877, will be delinquent, and

An Ounce of Prevention.

The Nevada Legislature is about to organize and begin the important duties which shall devolve upon it as the law making body of this State. Many subjects are to engage the attention of our Representatives, and none can be decided without affecting the welfare of our taxpayers. But one more, especially demands our consideration at present, viz: the Bullion tax. We have given the subject some consideration and dare affirm that it has but one side. There is no sense, justice, or wisdom in a proposed repeal or reduction of this tax, and any attempt at such action will meet with just condemnation from every honest taxpayer.

The mines of this State are its poorest possessions. Not one dollar except that which goes to the daily laborer helps the growth of our State. If there are palaces to build in San Francisco our net proceeds build them; if we have a desirable office to fill, the net proceeds purchase it; if there is a movement on foot which the farmer, merchant and laborer oppose, the net proceeds of our mines are again called to the front to secure its success.

There is, however, little need of arguing the matter, as no sensible man holds that there is reason in a proposed repeal or reduction. The press have unanimously agreed that such a measure would cast eternal disgrace upon its projector, and we are only anxious that this opinion, which is universal among honest citizens, should be held up before our legislators. Some of our contemporaries have asserted that the repeal movement would never be mentioned. We hope they may be correct, and know that the man who dares propose the robbery will never be mentioned except as a synonym for treachery and weakness.

Ideal Element in Religion.

We take the following thoughtful and expressive lines from Professor Tyndall's "Fragments of Science." Read between the lines and kindly remember your scrap book:

"The world will have a religion of some kind, even though it should fly for it to the intellectual whoredom of 'Spiritualism.' What is really wanted is the lifting power of an ideal element in human life. But the free play of this power must be preceded by its release from the tora swaddling bands of the past, and from the practical materialism of the present. It is now in danger of being strangled by the one, or stupefied by the other. I look, however, to a time when the strength, insight, and elevation, which now visit us in moments of 'clearness and vigor,' shall be the stable and permanent possession of purer and mightier minds than ours—purer and mightier, lastly, because of their knowledge of matter and their more faithful conformity to its laws."

BULLION YIELD OF THE PACIFIC FOR 1876.—J. J. Valentine, superintendent of the bullion department of Wells Fargo & Co.'s express, has made up his annual statement of the treasure product of the States and Territories west of the Missouri river. The total yield for the year may be summed up as follows, as compared with last year: Gold—1875, $41,745,100; 1876, $44,358,000. Silver—1875, $34,043,900; 1876, $41,536,700. Lead, etc.—1875, $5,100,000; 1876, $5,040,000. Totals—1875, $80,889,000; 1876, $90,924,700. The yield for 1875 was the largest up to that time. The greatest increase is reported in Nevada, which is credited with producing $49,281,000; California, $1,861,500; Colorado, $8,990,600; Utah, $5,207,500; Montana, $2,777,000; Mexico, $5,213,700; Idaho, $1,674,000; British Columbia, $1,441,600; Oregon, $1,149,100; Arizona, $1,112,000; New Mexico, $350,800, and Washington, $63,400. In previous statements no attempt has been made to separate gold from silver, but great care has been taken this year in giving the gold and silver product separately.

Mark Twain and Bret Harte have begun suit against persons in Canada for infringement of copyright. The fun of these eminent humorists does not seem to be appreciated in the dense region of the Canadian mind.

Organization of the Nevada Legislature.

The Nevada Legislature convened according to law at the Capitol in Carson yesterday. It was thought that no action would be taken yesterday in the matter of organization, but the Democrats forced matters and through the defection of H. A. Comins, Republican, from White Pine, secured the organization of the Senate. Geo. W. Cassidy of Eureka was elected President pro tem, R. Guiberson of Eureka, Sergeant at Arms, and J. G. McClinton of Carson, Secretary. The other attaches were chosen by the same slate makers.

The people of White Pine county elected two Republicans as Senators, and one of these, Dickinson, is absent from his post, and the other, H. A. Comins, would probably serve his constituents better at home.

The House caucus decided upon H. R. Mighels, of Carson, for Speaker, O. H. Grey, of White Pine, Speaker pro tem, W. Kaufman, of Storey, Sergeant-at-Arms, C. H. Stoddard of Winnemucca, Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, and J. M. Woodworth, of Carlin, Clerk.

A New Year's Talk.

It is said that a dying father's request to his reckless son was that after his death the young man should sit in his room without a light an half hour for a certain number of nights. Yesterday we entered upon a new year. The old with all it contained is now past, save its lessons, which remain for use. Do we reflect an half hour over our actions and trace their sequences, or do we conceive such retrospection useless and form many good resolutions which we will not keep? Not keep because if what we did was improper and without sufficient strength of purpose, we continued the fancied or real pernicious practice, awaiting the first of the year, the probabilities are that we will continue the forming habit. A question, too, we may ask ourselves is, have we been true to our better judgment? We have done much; there has been the light and the shadow, and often side by side. But have we become in any sense more a man or woman? What are we doing now to foster real life, and how strongly are we opposing all that is at enmity to true nobility of character? Have we simply naked resolutions or are we in the possession of those elements which are conducive to solid personal advancement? How do we gauge life, and is our standard a rational one? Every one desires to make life a success, to know what is to his interest, and how to secure, enhance and successfully use all that is conducive to his own good and that of those about him. We sometimes get off the track, but like Pilgrim in his progress, when we find the path again there is a sense of comfort and profitable experience gained which has given us needed vigor. Conflict strengthens man and nations. A man is more a man for having struggled through a difficulty; what he secures at the end is then his own, and he is conscious and proud of its worth. Do you feel humbled by your retrospection and that you are not a giant by any means? If so you are not badly hurt; let this view stimulate you to renewed exertion. Do you feel that you are a failure? Why so? Do you measure success by your amount of money, good clothes and many acquaintances, or by filling to some use a niche in society which you alone could fill? Money has an invaluable use but forms no part of yourself. If your aim is alone to secure money you aim low and at gross bulky game. Endeavor to get money out preserve and improve thyself in your struggle to obtain that which is eternal to self. Banish depression of spirits. There is nothing profitable in the blues. Think and act with a will, never float, but slightly apply your energies and success will crown your efforts. Folding ones arms and waiting for Providence is poor business. There are many Micawbers waiting for something to turn up, but the man who turns things up turns Micawber down. Put your shoulder to the wheel and your cart will get out of the mud. If we grow this year it is not by good resolutions but by persistent, judicious action. We have not spoken of politics, the country's progress, the status of nations and our land's glorious future, etc., but have had with our readers an informal New Year's talk, one in which we number ourselves among those addressed.

Communicated—Town Incorporation.

Questions for the Reno Board of Trade.

The question of town incorporation, now receiving so much attention from the members of the Reno Board of Trade, is clearly one belonging to the tax-payers of the town at large. Upon the decision of those who are not members of this body, but who are probably as deeply interested in the welfare of our town, ultimately depends the success or failure of the proposed move. Would it not, then, be the better plan to make the matter subject to the consideration of the direct parties in interest—the citizens themselves, in mass? Our Board of Trade is composed of citizens, and good ones too, but how much weight attaches to any decision they may reach in this matter? Has the Board the least authority except that common to any citizen, of canvassing the proprieties of the case, and deciding in its own mind the expediency of the step contemplated?

By the proceedings of the Board as published, it appears that its members have not arrived at any definite conclusion among themselves with regard to the advantage or disadvantage of the abstract question, yet are busily engaged in considering the provisions of a bill covering every detail of town government. As a decision by them would undoubtedly be regarded in the light of an authoritative declaration, would it not be wise to declare either for or against the measure?

After settling the question, as I firmly believe it should be, in the affirmative, would it not be advisable, first, to determine definitely the amount of taxable property, next the very lowest estimate of attendant expense, and then the tax rate necessary to cover it? Would this work necessitate a reference to Carson's incorporation act, or that of any other town?

The details fixed as definitely as possible, would not the way be open for a speedy settlement of the whole question?

Then, assuming that the Board of Trade have decided in favor of incorporation, and the citizens have endorsed their action, where in the nature of benefits to be derived is there any sense in fixing the salary of "Chief of Police" at $1,080 per year? Why not designate this officer as "Town Marshall," fix his salary at, say, $500, give him a percentage of licenses collected and a fee for arrests made, so that his vigilance may be stimulated and rewarded?—so that his salary be in great measure dependent upon his value as an officer?

Why make the Clerk of Board of Trustees a salaried officer? In a town of the size of Reno for the next three or four years, no neglect would be felt through the omission of an insignificant $250.

The proposed salaries for night police are in nowise overdrawn, for good men are wanted for these positions, but why not make all other items of expense contingent upon the necessities? Where is the reason in saying $2,500 for the fire department, when one-half that amount may be more than sufficient, or the amount named not enough.

These inquiries have been suggested by the apparent mismanagement of the question as it presents itself to my view, and if you will kindly allow me, Mr. Editor, I should like to allude to the matter again in a few days.

TAXPAYER.

Reno, January 1st, 1877.

J. C. Flood of the bonanza firm made the following donations on Christmas day. To the Hebrew Orphan Asylum, $1,000; to the asylum in charge of the Sisters of Charity, $1,000; to the Protestant Orphan Asylum, $1,000; to the San Rafael Orphan Asylum, $500; to the Ladies' Protection and Relief Society, $500.

In the contested election case for the office of Sheriff—Williams vs. Seitz—at Elko, a demurrer was filed by Seitz, which at noon on Saturday was sustained by Judge Flack and the case dismissed. This gives the office to E. L. Seitz, republican, who was elected by one majority.

TO TRAVELERS.—The following information will prove of interest to those who intend taking a trip to any portion of Southern California. A passenger going South "via Lathrop" avoids delays in San Francisco by awaiting steamer departure, expenses incident to Hotel and board bills, and two transfers of baggage, also possible accidents and sickness incident to ocean routes. There is a great saving in time by taking the Lathrop rail route; also a saving in expense or cost of passage, as compared to the steamer routes, with the addition of city hotel bills. Passengers from the East connect as follows at Lathrop: West bound passenger train arrives at 1 p. m. Connecting passenger leaves at 8:15 p. m. Western bound Emigrant arrives at 4:10 p. m. Connecting Emigrant leaves at 1 a. m. Through time from Lathrop to Los Angeles: Express trains—18 hours, third class—34 hours. Stages for Lone Pine and Cerro Gordo connect at Mojave. Stages leave Newhall in the afternoon and arrive the same evening at San Buena Ventura, distance 50 miles, and laying there over night proceed next morning to Santa Barbara, arriving by noon, distance 50 miles. Train leaves Los Angeles daily at 3:30 p. m. for Colton and San Bernardino, and on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday for Indian Wells, connecting the same night with Arizona stages.

The Hon. Alex H. Stephens is regaining his strength and recovering from his rheumatic troubles. He takes exercise daily in the National Hotel corridors at Washington. He can walk the length of one of his editorial paragraphs and back again without much fatigue.

Jottings.

If you wish to see a moral entertainment, go and hear the Taylor family, Thursday night, at the Opera House.

The following resolution will be discussed, to-night in the Board of Trade: "Resolved, That it is the sense of this Board that Washoe county should be segregated from the Second Judicial District of Nevada and established as an independent District."

Ex-Treasurer Huffaker turned over to the County Treasurer, B. B. Norton, yesterday, $51,087.01, the amount of money in the County treasury.

The District Court was opened yesterday, by the Sheriff and Clerk, and immediately adjourned until to-day at 10 o'clock.

Twenty-one patients took New Year's dinner at the Poor House yesterday. The county jail provided hospitalities for six gentlemen callers.

Hon. C. C. Stevenson went to Sacramento last night.

Judge E. W. Hillier was in Reno last night, also Red Frank Wheeler.

Matt Parrott will soon have on hand a stock of fine knives, knife blades and other articles pertaining to his line.

Several of Reno's expert nimrods spent their New Year's along the banks of the turbulent Truckee, in quest of game of any description. After walking many miles through sage brush and swamp they finally succeeded in bagging one hawk, one meadow-lark and a small, deformed rabbit, and returning home late in the evening informed their friends that they had a "splendid time."

"Little Mattie" the wonderful child actress, only seven years of age, at Opera House, Thursday evening next.

NEW YEAR'S BALL.—The ball given last evening by the Good Templars, called out the largest attendance of the season and was a very enjoyable affair. The Opera House was crowded, and under the efficient management of Messrs. Hall and Aitken, dancing was kept up until 4 o'clock this morning. The music was furnished by Aleck Case & Co. and was very good. Pat Kelher fed the rioters about 12 M., and every one went away satisfied, including the Good Templars, who must have netted something handsome by the venture.

Taylor family, Thursday night, at Opera House.

HE SWORE OFF ON NEW YEARS—

An inebriated individual who should have been on the emigrant train enjoyed a first class ride as far as Reno last night. On the conductors gentle insinuation that his room was better than his company, and that his train would be along about 5 o'clock, he began making preparations to alight. Queen's circus was nowhere after the jump was made, and by actual count, the number of somersets turned was 51%. Slowly and sadly the animated bourbon tub arose, shook himself together, and meandered a few cubits west after what had once been a hat. His next move was in search of something to take as an inside application for his bruises. In a short time he might have been seen hanging on to a hotel counter for dear life, and singing a little song about "whiskey straight." On being allowed to pour out his medicine an extensive knowledge of the wholesale liquor business was displayed, and the barkeeper's lower jaw tumbled like unto Ophir as he saw the brimfull glass of whiskey disappear with a sound like the rush of mighty waters. The emigrant then wandered out, followed by the barkeeper's little proposition that the next bath he took must be in some other shop as gas was expensive in Reno. "If the amount of liquor consumed was in direct ratio to the injuries he sustained the man must have been badly hurt. We thought so as we saw him half an hour later lying on the cold, cold ground not ten steps from where he "smiled." A good Samaritan wheeled him to the train when it arrived, and as the brakemen loaded him into the car his lips parted and he spoke: "New Years, (hic), bet yer life when I (hic) swear off I don't take nothing only for medical purposes."

SOIREE AT THE DEPOT HOTEL.

When it was found that a number of ladies and gentlemen did not intend going to the party at the Opera House, and it also became known that a large number would be at the Good Templars' ball, several gentlemen in conversation with Mr. Chamberlain thought that another party would not interfere with the one at the Opera House, and accepted the proposition of Mr. Chamberlain to have a soiree at the Depot Hotel. Some twenty-five couples assembled in the dining room of the hotel. Bob Flanders, with two other violinists, furnished the music and Allen Bragg and W. R. Chamberlain acted as floor managers. About 11 o'clock Mr. Chamberlain had champagne and cake, which, as far as we could perceive, did not in the least mar the pleasure of the evening. Dancing closed about 12:30. The occasion was one of pleasantness and solid enjoyment and was a fitting termination of a happy New Year's day.

BOARD OF TRADE.—This evening

the Board of Trade has another important meeting. The mooted subject of a separate Judicial District for Washoe county will be discussed. There are a number in favor and a number against the proposition. Gentlemen, make it a point to be at Justice Gilson's office at 7 o'clock sharp, to-night. The subject of town incorporation will also be presented. An Incorporation Act should be fully and carefully considered. We want a good act, or none at all. Several business men and property holders oppose incorporation at present. But, as far as we have learned, the majority of property-holders and others are in favor of incorporation. Let the subject be fully ventilated. We suggest the consideration of other town incorporation acts in addition to that of Carson. Let us have the best possible town government. We need it, and why not have it?

FIRE.—As a proof of Reno's growth

we invite citizens and also non-residents who have not seen the New Year's window at the Branch Saddle Rock restaurant, on Virginia street, to see how Pat's oysterman began the New Year by making one of the finest if not the finest display ever seen in Reno and one which would do credit to any of San Francisco's high-toned Knights de Cuisine. After looking at the window step in behind the scene and see how well Pat's dinners assimilate with his window displays.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The following officers were elected by Reno

Lodge No. 19 I. O. O. F., on Thursday night last, for the ensuing term: N. G., P. B. Comstock; V. G., J. S. Gilson; Sec., J. M. Flannigan; Treas., Donald McKay.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.—It seems that Filkins had said he wouldn't call yesterday, considered it an absurd custom anyway, and Mrs. F. agreed with him perfectly, and said she'd like to see herself turn her house upside down to feed forty people. Filkins went his way and fell in with Tom, Dick & Co., all of whom were calling, and he concluded to make a few merely for forms' sake. He made a few dozen, and about 6:30 landed at a friend's house very much confused in mind, and shaken in body. The door bell was answered and F. was thunderstruck to see his wife standing on her face. It was a little dark and she did not see who it was but knew by his loud breathing that this man was probably making his last call. Filkins mustered up courage and said, "app' Noo Yer, pet; been callin, my dear." She thought it was some drunken man and slammed the door, telling her friend whom she was assisting that "a tipsy brute had come to the door and called her 'pet' and 'dear' and bah! it made her sick." Filkins went the other way and told Jones in great glee how he had "been callin", and had so much cups coffee that he met his own wife and she didn't recognize 'im."

VOTE OF THANKS.—Reno Lodge

No. 17, I. O. O. F., at their last meeting passed the following resolutions in reference to the departure of Rev. C. L. Fisher.

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be, and is hereby tendered to our with drawing Bro. P. G., C. L. Fisher, for his many genial qualities of head and heart; the one, diffusing knowledge and strength in our councils; the other, manifesting itself in evidences of kindness of word and action in our daily contact outside the Lodge.

And be it further resolved, That the best wishes of every member of this Lodge will attend Bro. Fisher, whithersoever the path of duty may direct his footsteps.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge.

Old Joe Taylor, the pioneer minstrel of California, at Reno Opera House Thursday evening next.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.—We abstract

the following items of interest from the County Auditor's report to the Board of County Commissioners, in session to-day: Cash in treasury Oct. 3d, '76, $40,137.71. State and county taxes for 1876, as per Treasurer's report, $53,645.89; additional amount from poll, personal and property taxes, fines, etc., $7,848.87; grand total $101,632.67. Expenditures during the year aggregate $50,545.66. Cash on hand to date $51,087.01. The liabilities of the county are $18,955.34, thus giving as the net assets of the county, January 1st 1877, the sum of $32,117.67.

"Little Orphan" Thursday evening at the Opera House.

NOTICE.—After this date our place of business will be closed on Sundays. JAS. TOOMBS & CO. Reno, January 2d, 1877.

At a recent meeting of the Clinical Society of London, Mr. Callender brought to the notice of the society the methods he had adopted in his wards at St. Bartholomew's for the dressing of wounds. By the use of brushes, the cleansing of a wound is not a painful process. A further recommendation is that the employment of sponges and other materials commonly used for cleansing wounds, and which some surgeons believe to be a frequent cause of the passage of infectious material from one patient to another, is thus done away with.

A good ledge of cinnabar was struck in the Carrie mine, one and a half miles southwest of Cloverdale. The tunnel is sixty feet into the hill. The rock is soft and rich.

To cure neuralgia, take the bark of the peach tree, pound it, and steep in water. Hold the face over it, so as to thoroughly bathe it in the ascending steam. It is a certain cure.

James Jenkins, of Carlin, has been granted a patent through Dewey & Co., patent agents, San Francisco, for a new locomotive spring.

Lost.—Last Tuesday morning an embroidered brown pocket-book, containing notices about the California cities was lost between the International and Depot Hotels. A suitable reward will be given to the one who finds the above book shall leave it at the International Hotel.
